Dear Neighbor

Happy 2022! Yet another winter has come and (almost) gone and we're so excited for spring. The start of spring means many things around Norton Commons - flowers blooming, neighbors walking, kids playing, restaurant patios opening, and events starting. Aside from warmer weather, there is plenty to celebrate this time of year in our community.

One of the things we're most looking forward to is welcoming the first families into our Oldham County section, the Hamlet. This special section was long-awaited, and the homes being constructed there promise to live up to every expectation. A great way to experience the Hamlet's unique charm is to visit Homearama 2022, happening September 10-25 there. With ten homes on the tour, all thoughtfully-designed and gorgeous to behold, you won't want to miss it. In addition to the Hamlet, we're pleased to offer new lots of varying sizes in Jefferson County, perfect for building the home of your dreams.

Another exciting development this year will be the opening of over half a dozen businesses in our North and South Villages. With new, diverse options in dining and beverage, professional services, and retail, there will be even more to love about our walkable neighborhood. Neighbors will soon enjoy the option to easily stroll to more than sixteen restaurants and bars. Options for neighborhood doctors, lawyers, fitness centers, retailers, and more continue to grow too. In a world where we all seem to become busier and busier, this type of close convenience is a rare treat indeed.

Also around the corner is the start of our yearly community events. The Development Team is pleased to offer a plethora of fun activities in 2022, starting with the grand reopening of the Cottage Shops and Food Truck Fridays at the North Village Market on April 29. We're also hosting our annual Art Festival on May 21 & 22. Other event highlights include our Music by the Water Series, Cars in the Commons, the North Village farmers' market, and plenty more to come. The 2022 Events Calendar is on the back cover, so save it and visit our website and social media platforms for updates and details.

In closing, it's shaping up to be another amazing year here in Norton Commons. If you don't call this community home already, we hope you'll at least visit one of our new businesses or attend an event soon. If you think you'd like to make your visit more permanent, give our sales team a call: 502.412.5085.

Years may pass, but one thing remains constant: in this community-focused neighborhood, we always look forward to seeing the smiling faces of the folks who help make Norton Commons a special place. Spring is a great time to see our neighborhood come alive.
