Hi there, Neighbor!

We hope you've been enjoying this summery weather. We sure are, because in Norton Commons warm weather means open patios, porch sittin', Food Truck Fridays, live music, and pool time. In other words, loads of community fun.

This season, we kicked off spring with a reopening of our North Village Market cottages housing six great vendors: Taylor Lee (curated gifts), Empowering Beads (handmade jewelry & classes), Alchemy Cottage (Venezuelan fusion foods), Nicole & B Boutique (women's clothing & accessories), The Grainwright (micro-bakery), and Found in a Field (hand-wrought jewelry). The cottages are open each Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, so stop by to check them out. Better yet, bring a chair and a friend on Friday nights for Food Truck Friday, our weekly live music and culinary series.

Further proof spring has sprung is the revival of Sunday farmers' markets. Also in the North Village Market, they're each Sunday from 12-4pm. Local growers and makers come together to offer their best seasonal produce, prepared foods, honey, coffee, cheeses, spices, crafts, plants, and more right here in Norton Commons. It's a fan favorite and the treasure hunting at this event is rich indeed.

Also on the horizon are the Music by the Water Concerts (starting May 28), Cars in the Commons (June 25), Homearama (September 10-25), and the Wine & Food Experience (October 1). That's not to mention the myriad of impromptu pop-up events held by neighborhood businesses and other organizations. In short – it's going to be a very exciting summer.

On the real estate front, the market is hot and available homes are going fast. We had a record-breaking year in 2021, and 2022 looks to be on the right path to be even better. The Hamlet, our Oldham County section, remains a high-interest area, thanks to the beautiful setting, roomier feel, and award-winning school system. We've sold over 2/3 of the lots in the first section, and additional offerings in the Hamlet should become available next summer. Larger homes tend to be the trend there, and Homearama will be the perfect chance to see some of these big beauties in detail. We also recently opened up a new Jefferson County section which has great options for custom builds of all sizes. That's proved a popular spot too, so if you're interested, call sooner rather than later before they're all snatched up.

No matter where folks live within the neighborhood, they're sure to appreciate the easy walkability, great selection of local businesses, and beautiful parks and amenities throughout. If you'd like to sample the fun for yourself, come visit for a meal, an event, or a day of shopping. Stop by our sales center and check out our rich neighborhood history and master plan. You'll quickly see why Norton Commons is more than just a neighborhood – it's a lifestyle experience. And that lifestyle is at its very finest during these warm, welcoming days of summer.

We hope to see you around the neighborhood soon.
