Awarded as the Nation's Top Mixed-Use Community

nortoncommons.com

Dear Neighbor:

The weather is cooling down, the sun is setting earlier, and the kids are back in school. Yes, there's no mistaking it; it's summer's final hurrah.

In Norton Commons, that means waving to kids walking and biking to neighborhood schools, and chuckling as they persuade parents to take them to the community ice cream shop after a day of learning. It means enjoying a few more Food Truck Fridays under those cooler sunsets while we listen to live music. It means one or two more afternoon swims in the neighborhood pools before they close for the season. It also means waiting with bated breath for the leaves on our 2400+ trees to start their fall show in a couple of weeks.

Fall is a special time in Norton Commons because it brings round some of our very favorite traditions. Fall events such as Oktoberfest (September 22) and Fall Festival (October 28) are on the horizon, and season-long favorites are still going strong too. Our Food Truck Fridays continue through September 29, and Farmer's Market runs through November 5. Many of our neighborhood restaurants and bars have exciting fall menus planned and patio season is about to be at its peak. It's the perfect time to stroll through one of our many parks with a refreshing beverage in hand. From a leisure standpoint, fall may be the best time of year to enjoy all Norton Commons has to offer.

Unlike the weather, the real estate market is as hot as an August afternoon. Sales continue to remain strong and inventory is low. We are excited to announce that a few exquisite spec homes in our last two sections will hit the market soon. We're also looking forward to a late fall release of long-awaited lots in our next Oldham County section. And as always, there are plenty of available lots in existing sections, perfect for building the custom home of your dreams. Call the Sales Office for details on these and other exciting developments: 502.412.5085.

New businesses continue to select Norton Commons as their chosen community for growth. Recently we've added a luxury treat baker, a basketball training facility, an orthodontist, and a dry cleaner to our community business lineup. We're happy to say there are also even more unique concepts under development. In Norton Commons, it's all about convenient, beautiful living, and these businesses augment our residents' ability to enjoy life to the fullest, close to home.

If you'd like to experience this type of beautiful lifestyle for yourself, we would relish the opportunity to share our community with you. Visit our website to learn more and to schedule your visit: NortonCommons.com

This fall, no matter your plans, we hope we can be a part of them. We look forward to seeing you around the neighborhood.

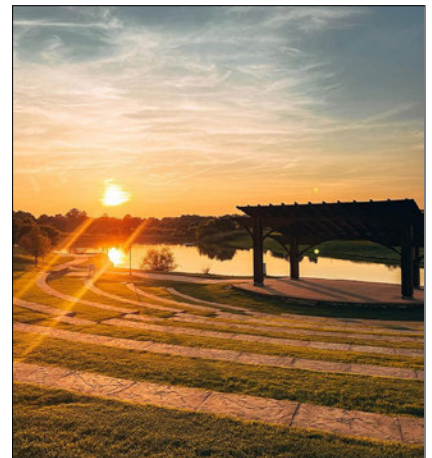

Warmly,

The Norton Commons Development Team
